The History of Alpha Phi Alpha

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first intercollegiate, Greek-letter fraternity established for African-Americans, was founded in 1906 at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, by seven college men who recognized the need for a strong bond of brotherhood among African descendants in this country. The visionary founders, known as the "Jewels" of the Fraternity, are Henry Arthur Callis, Charles Henry Chapman, Eugene Kinckle Jones, George Biddle Kelley, Nathaniel Allison Murray, Robert Harold Ogle, and Vertner Woodson Tandy.

The Fraternity initially served as a study and support group for African-American students who faced racial prejudice, both educationally and socially, at Cornell. The Jewel founders and early leaders of the Fraternity succeeded in laying a firm foundation for Alpha Phi Alpha's principles of scholarship, fellowship, good character, and the uplifting of humanity.

Membership was racially integrated in 1945. Today Alpha Phi Alpha comprises 706 active chapters in the United States, Germany, Bermuda, Korea, the Virgin Islands, the Bahamas, Canada, and South Africa.
